Everything You Need For Your Pet Rats

A Checklist of Essential Supplies

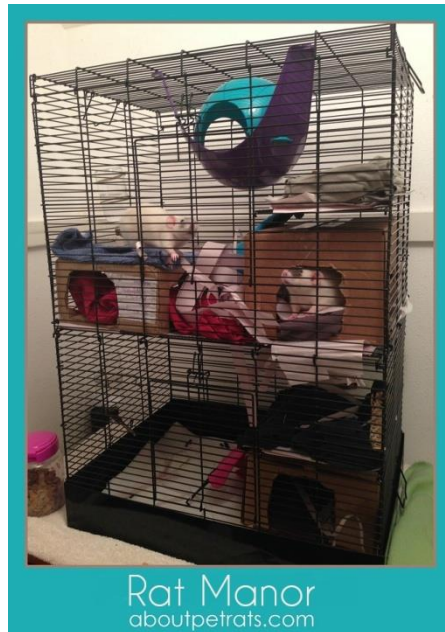

Essential Supplies for Your Pet Rats

Cages & Carriers

The Cage ~ Your Rats' Palace

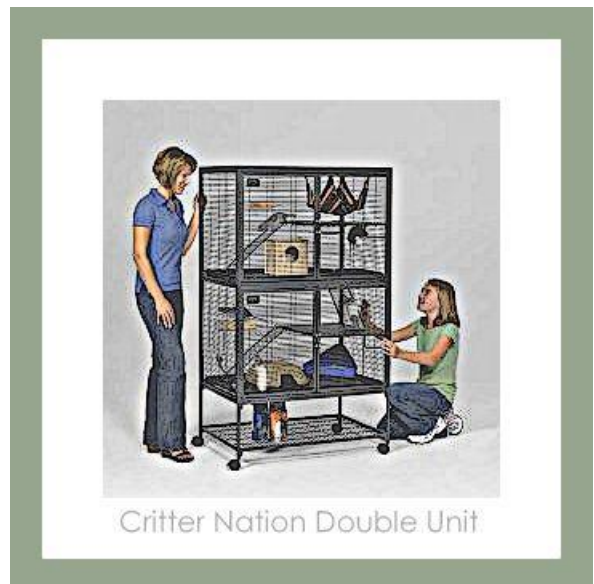

There are several wonderful cages available for pet rats. To learn more about how to choose a cage, visit Choosing Your Pet Rat's Home.

A great starter cage which is big enough for two rats is the Rat Manor. If you do start with this one you'll probably want to upgrade later to a larger cage. Advantages of this cage are it's completely collapsible and easy to clean. The bars are spaced close together making this cage ideal for babies.

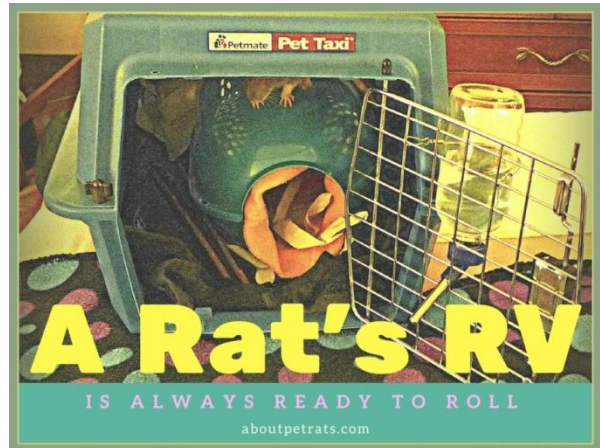

OR

If you can afford a larger cage (and you have the space), Critter Nation makes a Double Unit Cage that's roomy, has large doors making it easier to clean and decorate AND it's on wheels AND it has a shelf under the cage for supplies!

The Carrier ~ Your Rats' Mobile Home

The most versatile travel carrier is---- you won't believe this----a cat carrier. They really are ideal for setting up your pet rats' home away from home. You can use this carrier not only for travel, but also for keeping your rats corralled while you clean their main cage.

Inside the Cage

Hammocks and Hideaways

There are lots of great handmade hammocks and other types of hanging beds for pet rats sold on Etsy. Buy a couple of these and your pet rats will lounge in style.

Although maybe not essential, who can resist this Pirate Ship?

Cardboard Boxes

Use cardboard boxes you already have around the house. Cut out doors and windows to make nesting and hide-away boxes for your rats.

Cardboard Boxes

Bedding

SOFT FABRIC

Used or new cotton T-shirts make comfy bedclothes to place both inside and on top of boxes. If using old T-shirts, make sure there aren't any holes. (Ratties can get their limbs or even their head stuck inside a hole.)

PAPER

Plain newsprint

Available in various sizes, you can easily shred this paper by hand. Your rats will enjoy creating nests in their favorite spots.

Plain Shredded Newsprint

Cage Floor Covers

Use inexpensive, fleece blankets to cover cage floors. Best value = buy this plush king-size blanket and cut to fit your cage.

Litter & Litter Boxes

Option A:

Make Your Own

Use shoebox lids, cardboard flats that hold canned food or cut off the bottom of any appropriately sized box.

Option B:

Order 10" pizza boxes online. Split in half to form two litter boxes. Line pizza boxes with layers of unbleached paper towels or Fresh News.

For young rats & smaller cage, order 8" pizza boxes (also available as an Eco-friendly takeout box)

Option C

Commercially made litter box. Comes in regular and jumbo sizes.

If choosing Option C, you'll also need to buy litter to place inside the litter boxes:

Fresh News is made from 100% post-consumer recycled paper. The soft pellets are highly absorbent and help neutralize odors. Hypoallergenic and low dust. Helps raise money for non-profits.

Chew Toys

There are many varieties of wooden chew toys. Avoid colored wood.

Willow sticks are wonderful:
Pretzels (short twigs)

Mega Munch (long sticks)

Bamboo Chews are even better!

Wheel

Wodent Wheels are the best!
Much safer than a conventional wire wheel, they come in many colors and sizes. (Junior, Wobust & Senior)

If you just want to buy one wheel, the 12" Wobust Wodent Wheel works great for all sizes and ages of pet rats.

Climbing

Ladders make getting up and around easier. They come in various lengths from 8" - 48".

Another great climbing tool is a rope ladder: 17" and 26" rope ladders are available:

17" rope ladder

26" rope ladder

Rope Perches

- Choose the length that fits your cage best: 21 - 36"
- Twist the rope into an endless variety of shapes
- Easily attaches to sides of cage with convenient screw off caps

Tubes

Stop by Home Depot and pick up a PVC pipe or buy a giant plastic tube online. Large mailing tubes work great, too.

Variety & Supplements

Green Mush

Green Mush provides the highest quality, most comprehensive combination of superfoods. It contains large amounts of CoQ10, a powerful antioxidant, and promotes energy and longevity.

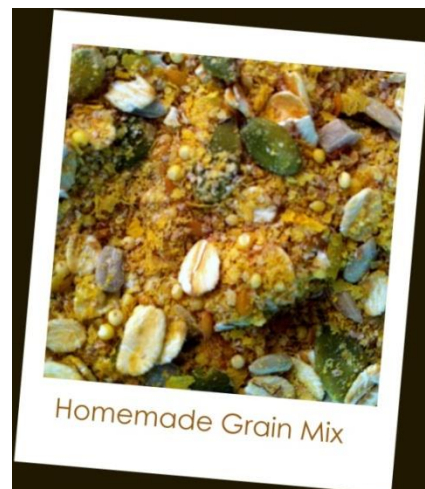

Originally created by the founders of Healthforce Nutritionals for their pet rat, June. Green Mush is a must-have supplement for your rat's diet.

A Recipe for Your Rats!

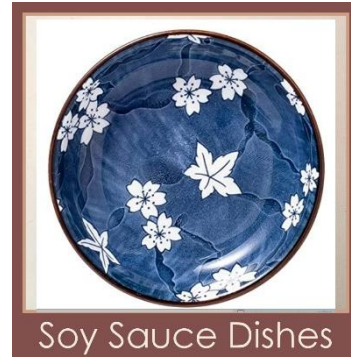

Grain Mix Ingredients:

- 4 ½ shelled raw sunflower seeds
- 1 T flax seeds
- 3 T raw rolled oats
- 4 ½ millet
- 4 T toasted wheat germ
- 2 ¼ T nutritional yeast flakes
- 2 T raw pumpkin seeds
- 2 T lecithin
- Optional: Add hemp hearts and/or chia seeds

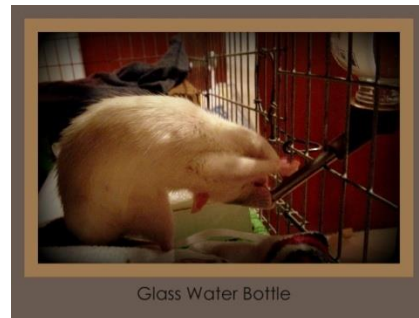

Food & Water Dishes

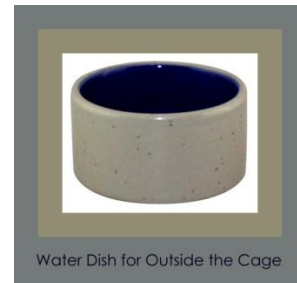

Soy sauce dishes are perfect breakfast and dinner plates.

Use glass water bottles for inside the cage. Get a bottle brush and clean out your rats' water bottles at least once per week.

Get a water bowl to use for when your rats are outside of their cage. (Also available as a 2 Pack---less expensive per bowl than buying just 1)
